A letter to UCC/Wawascapes/modecraziness

Hello, Outraged_Flygon here. You may know what happened to me back in early march. Yeah, the guy that got "exposed" for making an inside joke fully SFW shitpost between me and kostas that was blown too out of proportion by you. It appears that you apparently can't learn to move on so I'm here to address something that needed to be talked about.

It's been a long time since I've wanted to talk about everything that happened in the meantime and my current image and relation about UCC/Wawascapes/Modecrazines. Seeing how this whole situation devolved into absolute chaos because of a shitpost, I cannot afford myself to stay silent for any longer and people outside MUST know what happened, so let's do it NOW

Before starting to dive into what I have to say, I will have to ask any of you to NOT go harass the individuals mentioned here. Not only is it useless but it would also make the situation infinitely worse between each side than it already is, I clearly don't need that.

Part 1 - Introduction and anomalies found

Despite literally everyone already knowing my username, a small and brief introduction about myself won't hurt.

I'm a 24 year old french adult that shows an interest to obbying and tower building in my free time, though said time is kind of constrained considering I'm having a job in a small grocery store near where I live.

Everything started when I met mercita through the deletion of n4a beforehand and used to be a curator for his fangame, Mercury's Towers of Doom until I personally decided to step down.

Then, I joined the Obbies of Everything's discord server back in 2025, a fangame owned by Ununrockium. Nothing much happened besides some quick discussions and some uninteresting lurking.

After bonding with some of the members within this community, I quickly was invited to join another private community by the name of "Ultra's Community Craziness". Everything was chill at a first glance.

The server was simply made to hang out, play games and discuss our worries about life and around 50-60 were present, including a few “friends” that’ll be mentioned numerous times in this document.

For what’s about me, nothing much happen, I usually hanged out with Ultra, Nuni and we just simply enjoyed building etoh towers (or mini towers for what’s about me, as I own a mini tower fangame), we sometimes had voice calls, you know, the usual group chat activities, applied to a slightly larger scale.

Over time, I started noticing some anomalies but barely took attention or was too influenced to realize that they clearly were in the wrong.

First of, and while I can’t really judge Nuni’s choice at this time, an user by the name of Mercita (today known as Kurowa_iyo, but also known as Mercury/Minasting/TheVoidKing or yet another name I still ignore today, will be named Mercita in this document) was allowed to roam free in that server. For those who do not know, Mercita owns a fangame by the name of MToD (Mercury’s Towers of Doom) and had a quite questionable past which includes toxicity, harassment or even attempts at deplatform, which, as we’ll see later, STILL APPLY TODAY.

I mean, it’s up to the server owner to decide who they let in. I imagine that at this time, Nuni had a good enough relationship with Mercita, and probably ignored his past but it shows how concerning and awkward this situation is about to get.

The second anomaly i noticed is that, while at this time the user was underaged to get a discord account (12 years old, to be exact), they had a relation with someone named ImPurpleBoii, which we will see later on, is probably one of the worst case of pestering I’ve ever seen.

But to make it short until the next part, it was someone that was invested into EToH and its related game, most likely Tower Creator where people inside UCC and him would meet up and play some games. Though, and while I’ll admit it’s wrong at this age, was also invested into roblox transfur games.

He also “managed” a small box based fangame where he kept around 4000 robux and wouldn’t give them back to Nuni.

There’s more to say about him and its relation to UCC/Wawascapes, which will be mentioned in the following addendum.

Beside that, everything seemed quite normal, and my relation with them was great at first and it felt like I found what people would say “a second home”

That is, until I started showing some interest into another game that is infamous for its topic used and suggestive nature: Changed

DISCLAIMER: Yeah, I like Changed a lot, I like its artstyle and the whole transfurmation gimmick, HOWEVER, I am absolutely not interested neither invested into the fetish associated with it. Never has, never is and never will be. Genuinely.

Yeah, at first people seemed to be skeptical about me liking this game and they would see me as their new purple for even liking something they dislike. And while they didn't seem bothered at first, they actually did and no one told me anything about it.

Oh yeah, one buzzword that should be defined beforehand for people that are confused with this whole game aspect since it will be appear many times down below

Transfur/Transfurmation:

Furry version of "transform"
The act of having a living creature (usually anthropomorphic) turn into something furry related.

Definition from the Urban Dictionary

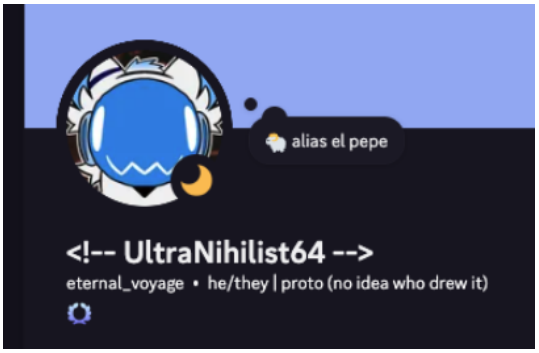
Starting from early March, everything went downhill. Matrix made a document that everyone in his community saw as he found out about the private joke.

But before we move on, I'd like to introduce people that participated, in a way or another, to this whole fiasco, but don't worry, I'll have time to talk a bit more personally about them

UltraNihilistic:



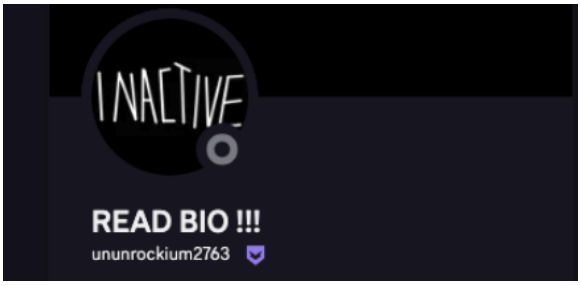
- Former friend
- Pretended to be fine with me liking changed
- Faked being uncomfortable with being friends with mercita by sending him the doc against him.
- Leaked my DMs to matrixstar in a shameless attempt to deplatform me

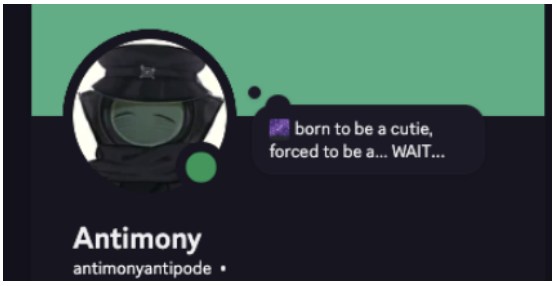
Mercita:

- Former friend
- Attempted to deplatform zaneblazed despite having a private drama already resolved
- Harassed multiple members they didn't like, including iojdgh, jpo and detective_meme
- Has shown toxicity towards people in the past over minor inconveniences

I'm inviting you to read this document over Mercita's past actions as I think it's interesting to know how he behaved in the past: Mercita's Past Actions

Ununrockium:





- Former friend
- Faked defending me to his friends within UCC during march's drama
- Dropped me when they knew I deconfirmed UltraNihilistic mini towers within my game due to the deplatforming attempt

Matrixstar:

- Former “friend”
- Blatant racist, transphobic and doxxer
- Made the RoLock document to attempt deplatform me
- Rallied to Ultra and Mercita to redact said doc
- Astromirical affiliate
- Today RoLocked at Tier 2 alongside 3 of his alts

Like mercita, Matrix has a document about how past action that warranted him a RoLock placement and once again, I’m inviting you to read it as there’s a bunch of information you would want to know: matrixstar656_5/Behavioral Profile (trigger warning: strong language and offensive jokes)

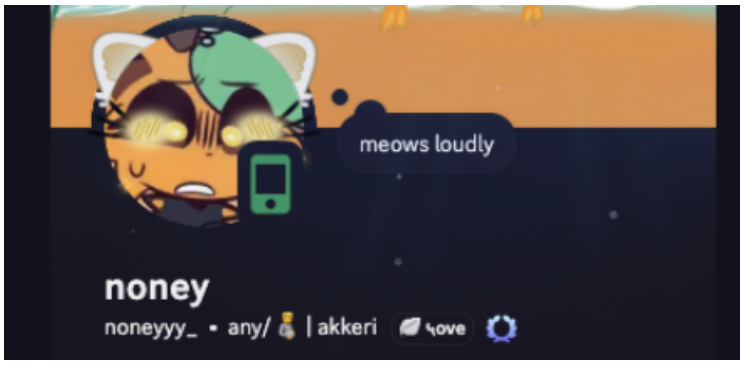
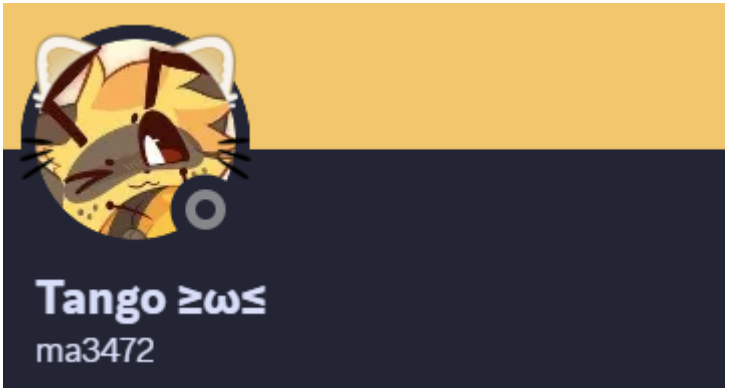
Noney:



- Former friend
- Made a build to defame someone else they didn’t like.
- Made inappropriate remarks within Tower District

Tango:



- Former friend
- Admitted to exploit in my tower game in the sole purpose to piss me off

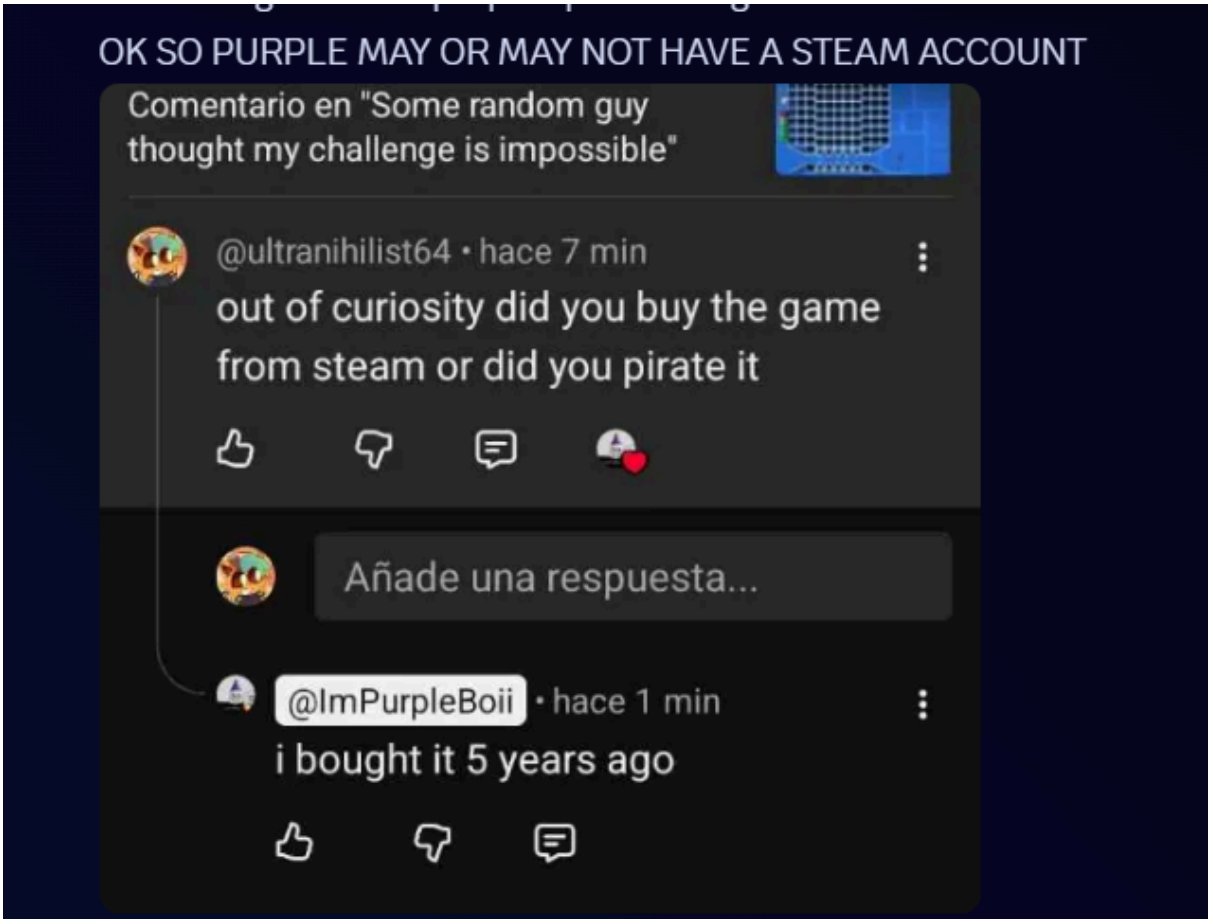
Part 2 - ImPurpleBoii's perpetual harassment cycle

DISCLAIMER: Before any of you inside of UCC go ahead and say I also participated in this whole situation, I'll simply say I was influenced by the people around me to hate on that guy because of his young age and actions, but it always was more in a comical way such as a short role play session where I pretended to be Purple in chat by changing my profile picture and such, however I could tell when things got a little too far.

Let's talk more about ImPurpleBoii and a lot of things that happened before the March incident.

ImPurpleBoii was a young user that was accepted within UCC (outside of Discord as he was underaged at this time) and showed an interest in tower obbies and fangame management. At some point, Nuni transferred him his former fangame, Ultimate's Rooms of Craziness (URoC), which was a pretty generic room based fangame. Nothing much happened until the former owners /developers asked for a refund of the group funds which was around 4000 robux at this time (which is around 14 dollars for reference).

Since purple refused to hand out the money, many people within UCC including Nuni, Ultra, Noney and Tango pretty much went on a witch hunt on youtube comment sections to publicly call him out and compare him to Jukecallaa, asking to give it back the money. Also this. Talk about hunting.



OK SO PURPLE MAY OR MAY NOT HAVE A STEAM ACCOUNT

Not only that, but since people within UCC discovered that he also was into transfurmation games in Roblox at this age, it pretty much started a movement of revolt and personal harassment to truly be purple you gotta embezzle robux tho

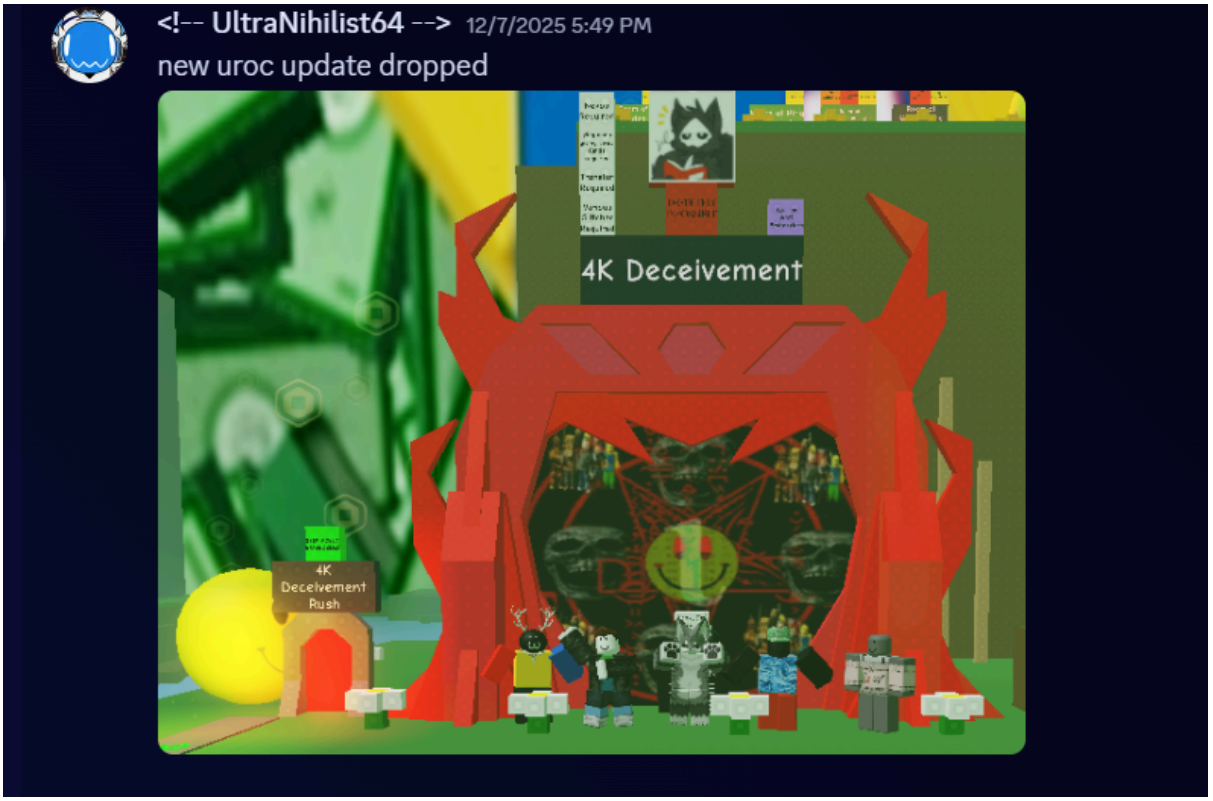
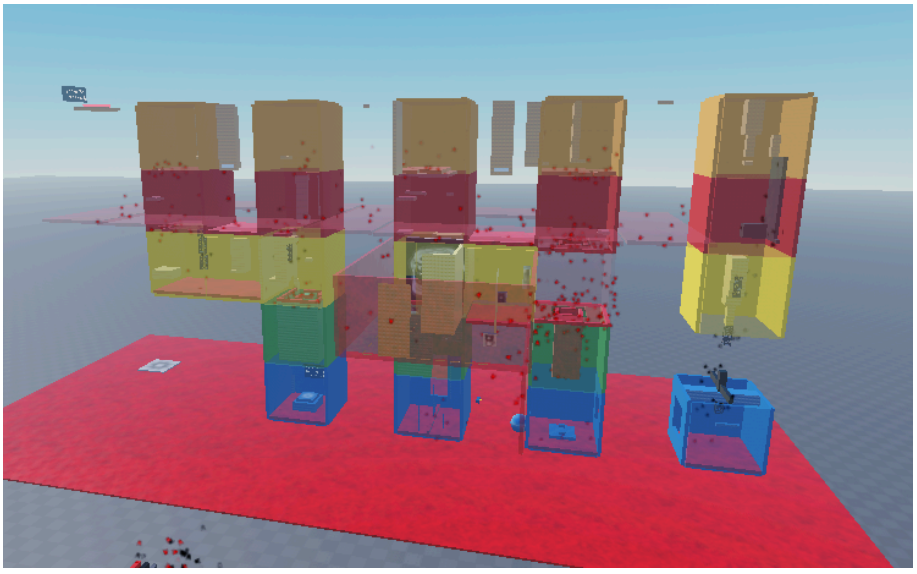
First of all, the devs that still had team create within URoC, decided to vandalize the game by adding a "joke" based mini tower and replacing all credits to purple to call him an embezzler. You can see it as the Stronghold event in EToH back in January 2025.

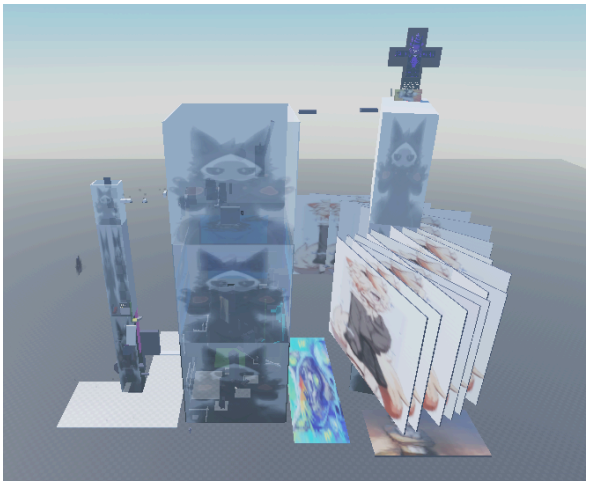


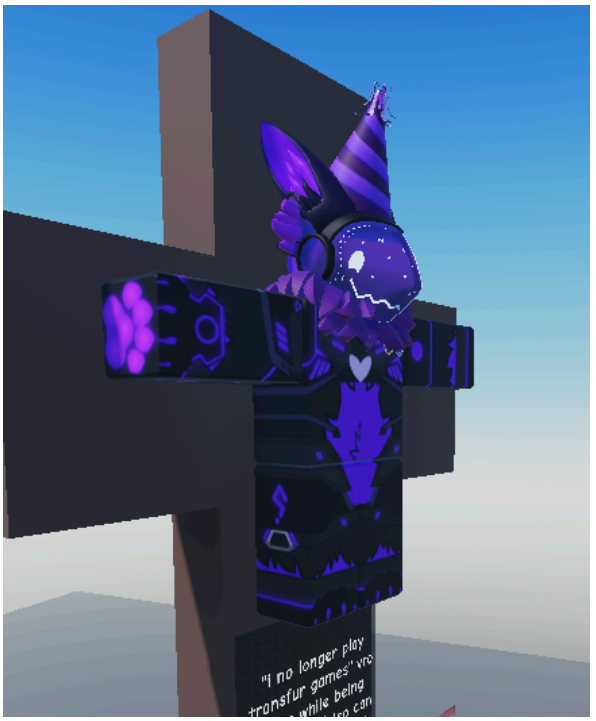
The joke mini tower was the following, I'm letting you discover what it consisted about: Wawascapes "builds" -> 4K DECEIVEMENT - Ultra64

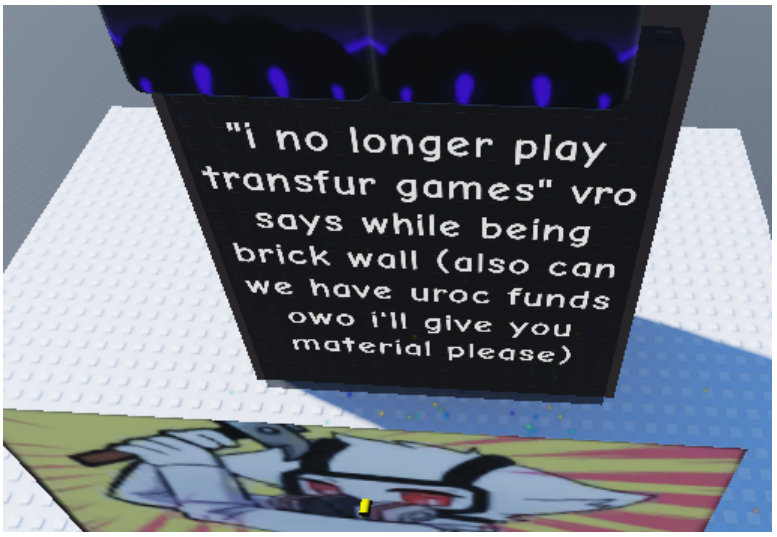


Furthermore, another tower build was made to defame Purple further, this time, made by noney itself and is, in my opinion, AWFULLY DISGUSTING.

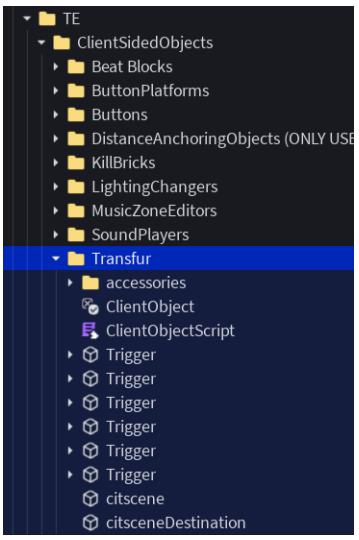
Wawascapes "builds" -> Transfur edifice







"i no longer play transfur games" vro says while being brick wall (also can we have uroc funds owo i'll give you material please)



But do you want to know what's the worst part of this build? It features a fully working Transfurmation CCO.

And don't be silly noney, you clearly can't make it pass as a joke when you willingly decided to submit it to my fangame as an april fools submission within my fangame. Same applies for your submission, Ultra.

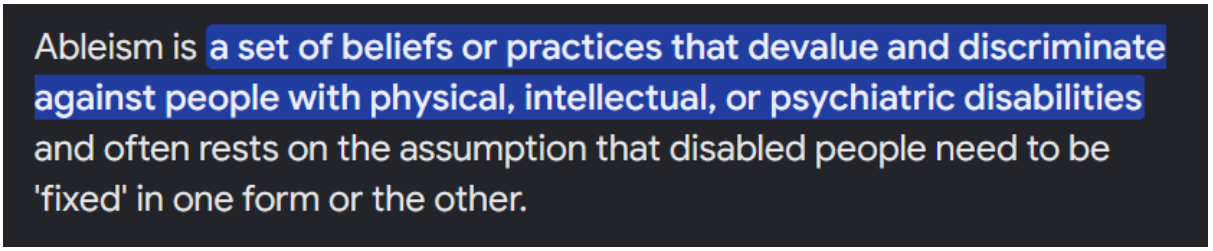
Oh yeah, before I forget, I'm clearly recalling - and while I cannot add proof for that for a clear reason that I'll reveal soon enough (hint: look at the end of part 4) - that at some point, Purple used to wear a neurodivergent pin ugc. And instead of empathizing with him, the only thing YOU did was to bully him more within UCC. You clearly know what this means, but let me remind it for readers:



Ableism is a set of beliefs or practices that devalue and discriminate against people with physical, intellectual, or psychiatric disabilities and often rests on the assumption that disabled people need to be 'fixed' in one form or the other.

Blatant ableism. So that's what your community is good up to, huh? Absolutely vile of you.

To add my personal opinion about this whole situation, while ImPurpleBoii basically stole the equivalent of a McDonalds meal and was/is playing transfur games on roblox at such a young age (which let's admit it, isn't a good thing at all), the harassment he received over the course of those past months is unjustifiable and outrageous. This just shows how far people associated with UCC/Wawascapes can go. BUT WAIT! It's about to get MUCH WORSE!

Purple, if you're somehow reading this and still active around this community, even if the chances are low, I'd like to apologize for anything that I could have said/done as I was influenced, even if you weren't aware of that at this time. If you're active on Discord, I'd like to discuss in a more serious tone about what happened and what you had to go through as well.

Part 3 - The "Outraged_Flygon/Behavioral Profile" situation

Back in early march 2026, an user by the name of matrixstar656_6, which I used to talk to a few times, contacted me in a pretty peculiar way.

Matrix found out about the shitpost I made that was MEANT to stay SFW and private between me and kostas (besides posting that one “1 like and i build mercita’s avatar being transfurred” to ultra).

For your information, the shitpost I made looked like this:

Over time, the avatar was once switched to matrix itself and then arthraix before removing it myself after realizing it was more of a bad taste joke than anything else.

This build never had ANYTHING inherently fetishist nor sexual, as - once again - i'm not interested in that aspect of transfurmation.

Notice how all it took to figure this out was a screenshot of me sending the "I like and I transfur Mercita" to Ultra? He deliberately gave that information to matrix as an attempt to backstab me out of the blue and PRETENDED to be okay.

Furthermore, he started to make a document about everything that happened within UCC (which I'll link a little below for anyone to read and make yourself an opinion of this situation) alongside contacting community owners as a blatant attempt to deplatform me.

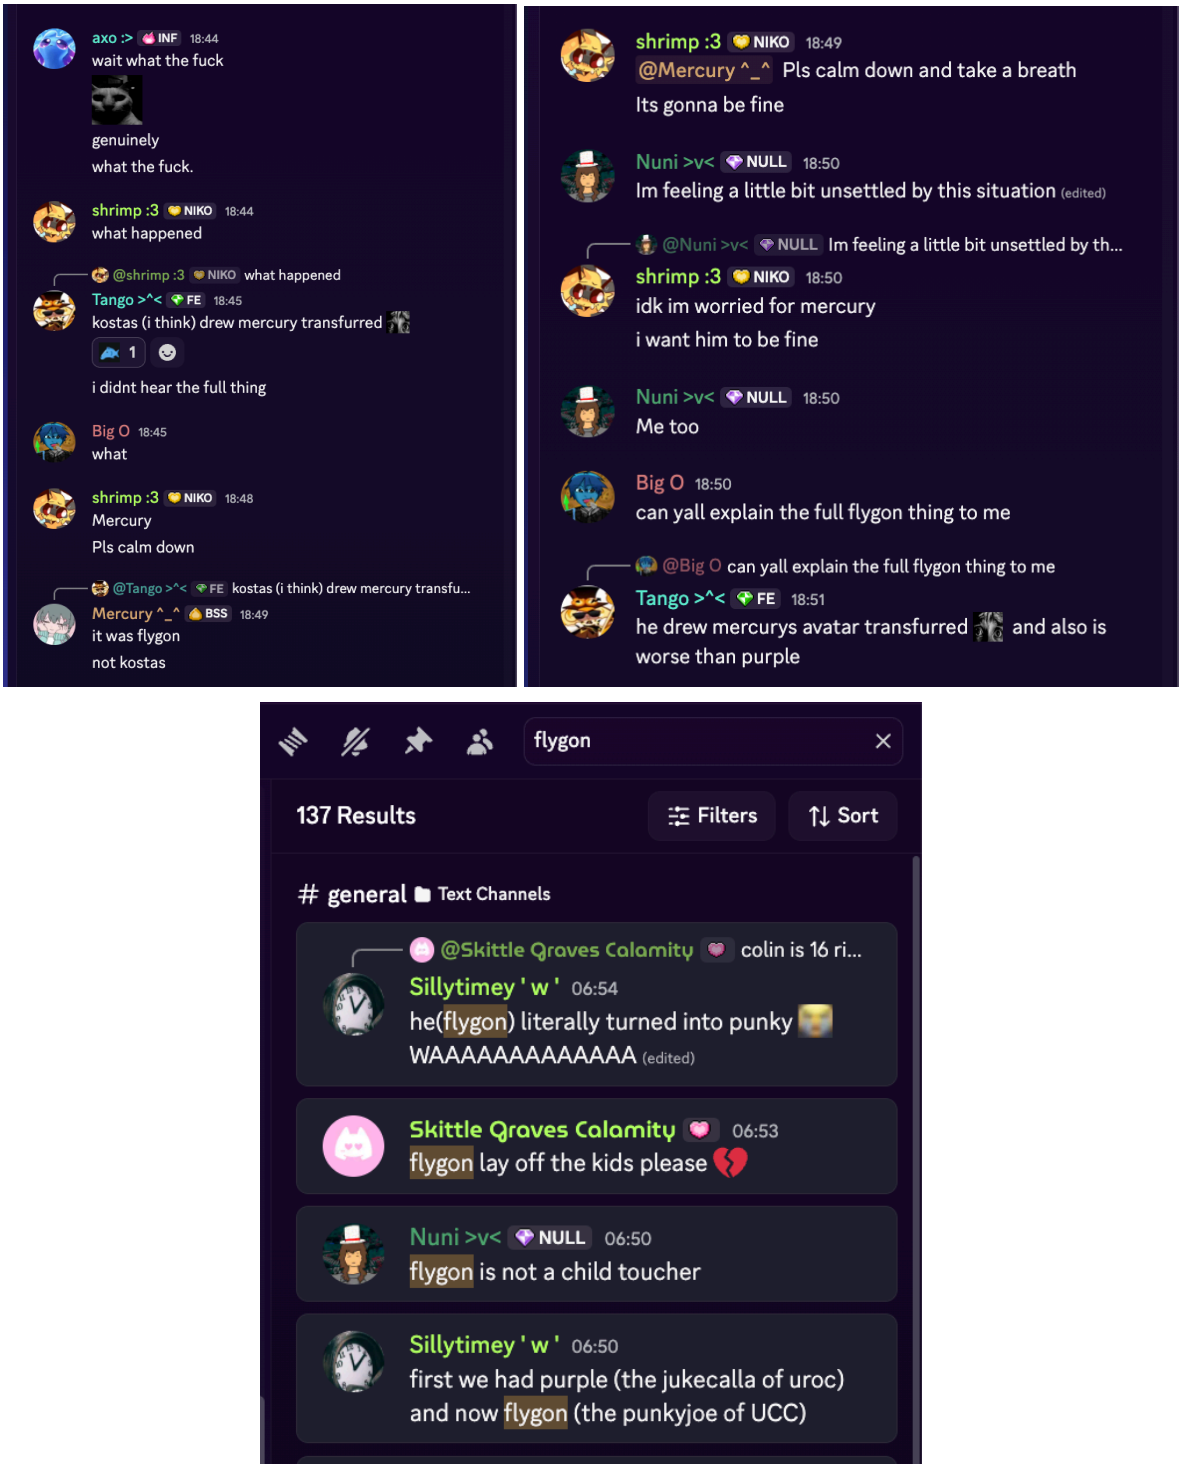
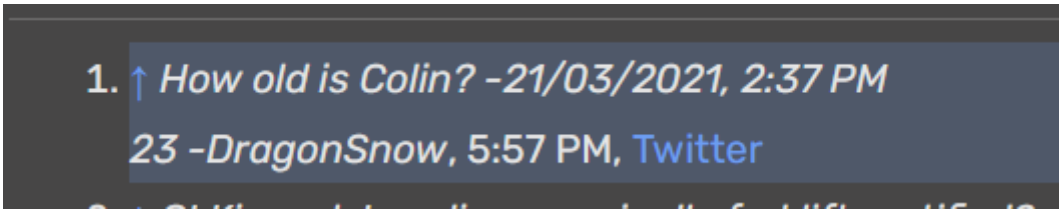
After blocking him, matrix decided to reveal everything about the transfur shitpost to his community. And while the reactions weren't surprising considering they didn't know the context it was made, some of them were a bit excessive.



As you can see, some of them went as far as comparing me to worse than ImPurpleBoii or even literally as comparing me to a literal pedophile. For what? A fully SFW shitpost that never was intended as something inherently sexual. Absolutely disgusting reaction from any of you. And considering when someone inside your community (noney) LITERALLY made a tower obby INFINITELY worse than that. And with no shame felt at ALL.
And you know what caused this appalling comparison? Another misinformation you spat from your mouth because it appeared as credible for people to believe.

And since anyone within your community can't seem to be able to research information and believe anyone says, let me do the research for you.



Congrats, matrix, you managed to brainwash your community into thinking that I'm a pedophile because you wanted a character from a game YOU hated and that I like to appear like a child because of the game's artstyle.

I sure hope you liked acting like the hero in this situation. Unfortunately for you, it never was the case, especially looking at your past and associations. But you already know what I'm talking about. I already pointed it out when I briefly talked about you.

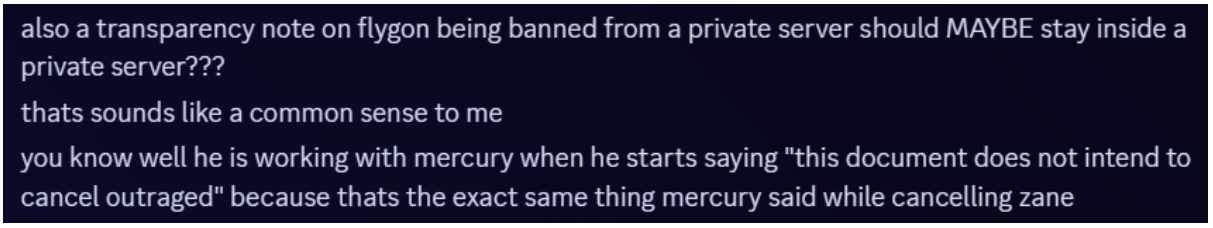
Two days later, matrix dropped the doc, which, again, I invite you to look at and make your very own opinion: Outraged_Flygon/Behavioral Profile

Obviously, I made a counter document about this whole situation that quickly escalated, and while it was pretty clumsy in its writing, I'm inviting you to read it as well: Outraged is... problematic media???

Something I'd also like to question in that document that never was mentioned in my own response document that I'm directly addressing the the UCC/Wawascapes moderators/managers: If you had rules about forbidding to talk about transfur related topics, where were you to make me stick to the rules? Oh right, YOU WERE NOT. The only thing you did was adding stupid fear emojis as reactions instead. That speaks for itself when it comes to your moderation.

Don't be silly, that's exactly what you did because it would make it easier for matrix to attempt to deplatform me, and you cannot convince anyone otherwise.

To add on, Kostas said this in my DMs:



also a transparency note on flygon being banned from a private server should MAYBE stay inside a private server???
thats sounds like a common sense to me
you know well he is working with mercury when he starts saying "this document does not intend to cancel outraged" because thats the exact same thing mercury said while cancelling zane

How intriguing of you, matrix. Because of your anger, because you cannot control your emotions, you decided to let your wrath out and go on to write an entire document to attempt to deplatform me because I did a shitpost involving your friend.

Because yes, you literally admitted that you made that document out of sheer anger for something that should have simply have been put in your own community instead of leaking it to RoLock and TFC @kostas used the wrong word then but still, to you breaking a rule that only applies to ucc is warrant a whole ass document with screenshots that couldve been put inside announcements channel? its a private server and your intent of sharin...

Matthew :3 12:00
the primary necessity of the document is simply for people to know why they have been banned without having to explain the whole thing over and over again
my initial reaction that threatened some EFC document towards flygon (and it being brought up in an authority gc including members of etoh lock and similar internet drama handler guys) was my bad, it was anger and boldedness at the time - things just happen to me when my suspicions seem to be coming true
and well it is too late now that they have actually put their attention to this - meaning that in the best case scenario it's going to sit around and only come up if shit of higher severity happens involving either of you, or in the worst case it's going to be polled in etoh lock (which i am willing to defend flygon in, but iirc i am banned from the etoh lock server)

Later that day, a RoLock vote was initiated and submitted by yet another controversial figure but not within UCC believe it or not, bob! (someone who from experience tends to stir up drama for fun). Thankfully, most people looked at it rationally and the blacklist threshold only reached 30% out of the 75% required (which I won't lie, quite stressed me down).

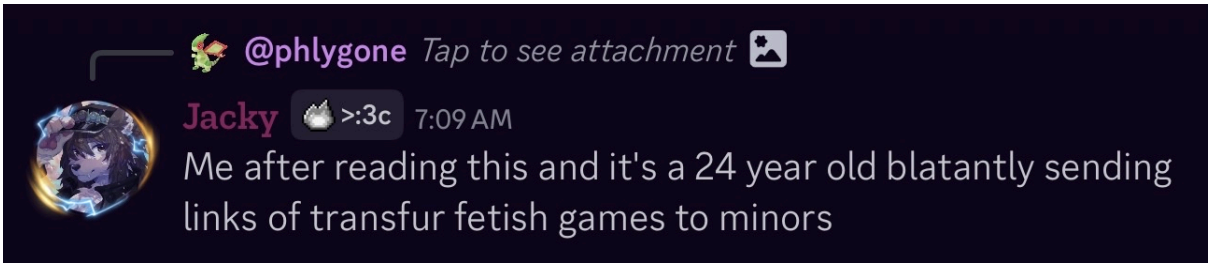
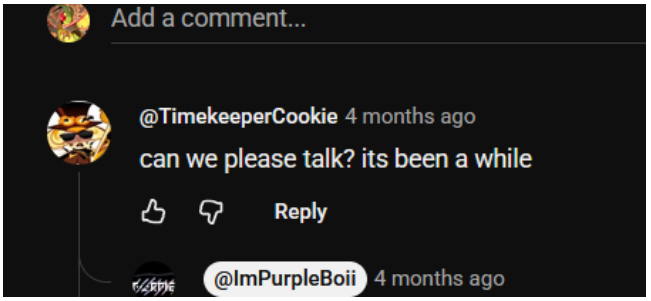
Though, it had the side effect of making the people that voted blacklisted believe that I was a dangerous predator that liked to fetishize minors.



@phlygone Tap to see attachment
Jacky >:3c 7:09 AM
Me after reading this and it's a 24 year old blatantly sending links of transfur fetish games to minors

Right, just because I talked about Changed, that I made shitpost gif edits consisting of tower fails making the player teleport to transfur games within roblox with NOTHING suggestive at all and that I made a shitpost in obby creator warrants me a title of this kind is beyond me and absolutely repulsive.

I also found out, and while it should belong to Purple's part, I think it's worth mentioning that they decided to apologize (however I think in a way that isn't sincere) RIGHT after UCC found out about my shitpost. Date checks out with the incident. (screenshots took in comment sections from Purple's channel that I'm linking here for you to check it out in person: https://www.youtube.com/@ImPurpleBoii)



Part 4 - The aftermath and "how a group of people can't move on from a minor incident"

A lot of things have happened since early march. As I thought this situation was resolved, I simply moved on while not forgetting whatever the hell happened. How wrong I was.

First off, when I decided to remove two mini towers made by Ultra from my fangame (for valid reasons), I've received a message from Ultra itself basically saying he was pissed off that I removed his mini towers and that I like Changed

Call me whatever you want, Ultra, but you can't be the one talking here, ESPECIALLY when you deliberately leaked my DMs to matrix.

Another user you all might know for being one of the most obnoxious EToH youtuber had to step in: Arthraix. However, this document is not about him (and you probably already know what kind of terrible things he did). I suspect matrix to have spread this situation to arthraix, therefore successfully managing to reach him, but of course, he had to stretch the information to ALSO brainwash his community, EToP. Congrats, that's now 300 more people that now think that I'm a degenerate.

Following that, in july, I decided to join the nap's towers discord server, where I talked a bit, showed some interest in the fangame and hung out with some people. Though I noticed Ultra and Noney were present in here, and I felt like my presence wasn't very welcomed.

It was the case as I quickly realized I was - at the very least - kicked from the server. Naturally, I went to talk to the owner, nap, where he explained that a user of the name of Alter (full name: altered_realities) contacted the mod and sent them the document matrix made, leading to an instant kick at the minimum. Yet another attempt at deplatforming me. Reminds you of something? A feeling of deja vu as some people would say. The exact same scenario Zane faced a year ago. And considering I vividly remember seeing him within UCC, they rallied to Ultra and Mercita to deplatform me. BEYOND DISGUSTING.

Even Nap, a respectable member within the EToH community, fell for the manipulation UCC engaged as he knew the document beforehand since it was polled in march but had a completely different reaction when I was evicted from NT.

But beside that, not much happened and I thought the whole situation was resolved. Sure, tango went to quickly spy a few times, but nothing else truly offensive. That is, until I decided to add some lore related content to my own game, since it takes inspiration from both Changed and Deltarune.

I'll play it cold here by revealing lore, but I decided to make the main antagonist of my game inspired/based on people that attempted/contributed to deplatform me.

The content in question was simply a recreation of the survey from Chapter 1, with different questions loosely based on Changed, followed by a name entry sequence. Entering certain names would lead to exclusive dialog. However, I decided to add 7 different name entries that has a completely different outcome:

Those being: Arthraix, Nuni, Ultra, Matrix, Nuni, Wawa and Tango

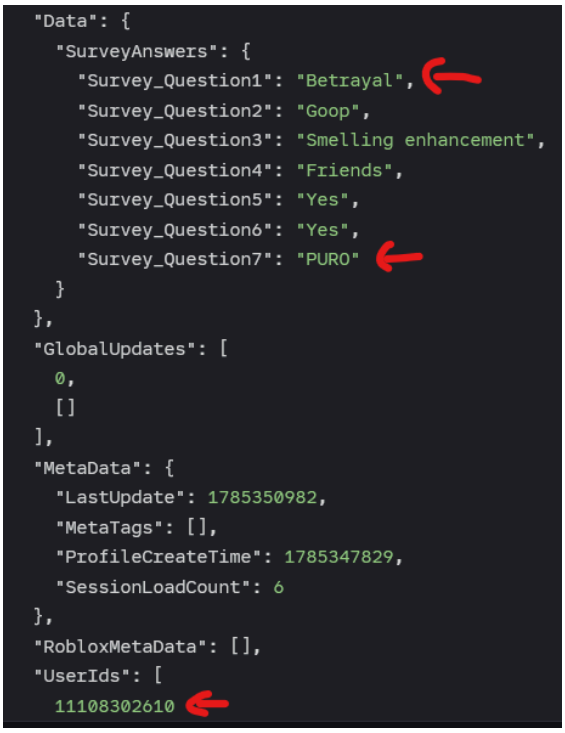
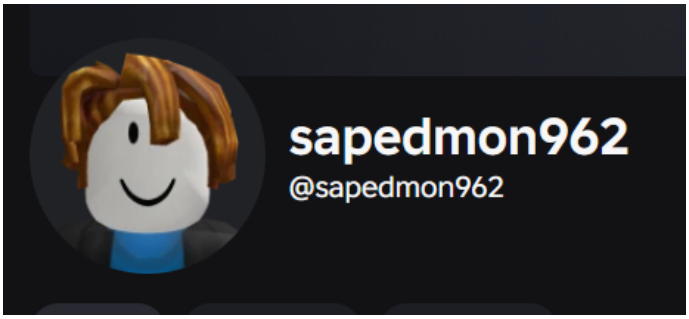
All those entries to the exception of Arthraix would lead to a dark red background with text saying that their actions wouldn't go unpunished (arthraix having different dialog saying that it would be better to not interfere and that everything is better without them), followed by a kick.

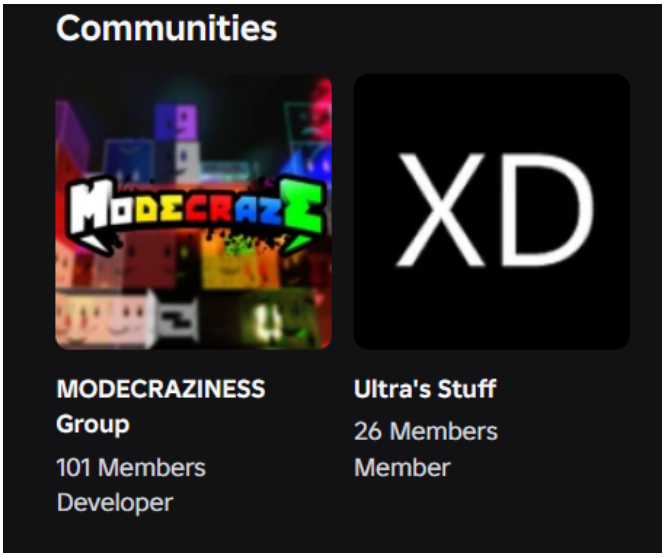
A few days later, they already found out about my lore related sequence, after finally thinking they'd move on from this stupid drama. How do I know that?
I often look at datastores to check what players answered to the survey (as their answers are saved so they'll be used in more lore stuff, pretty much like deltarune)



The user ID given leads to this account:



And seeing the community list they're in, can you tell there's a correlation?



I never EVER thought they'd still be after me, even 5 months later, basically tracking every move I make.

What followed wasn't any better at all as TheElderSoul's released a video calling out everyone involved into "making fun" or arthraix, which again, I'm inviting you to watch, not only in the context of this document, but also to point out something pretty bad, starting at 36:14

P.S.: My final Words Regarding Arthraix... and (not really) everyone else ...

He basically called out myself and Kostas over that shitpost, which is completely fine by itself, and even myself agreed to his point that i needed to stop build transfur stuff in obby creator since I realized it was particularly of bad taste.

But what is beyond me is the fact that Mercita himself told TES that. Now, let's be honest Mercita, how do you expect me to NOT have a grudge after everything you've done to me? (and even today apparently as I'll tell you in the personal message segment) apperently flygon still holds a grudge againest one of my friends.

ultra. he still holds a grudge againest ultra despite ultra already moving on basically one of our friends used some exploits to snoop around flygon's etoh fangame and they found some deltarune with changed / transfur shit mixed in and when it asked for a name. and they put ultra in the game kicked him out and then like a day later he got banned from the etoh fangame becuase
"associated with the ucc" even though there was no trace in the alt account my friend used so i don't get it?
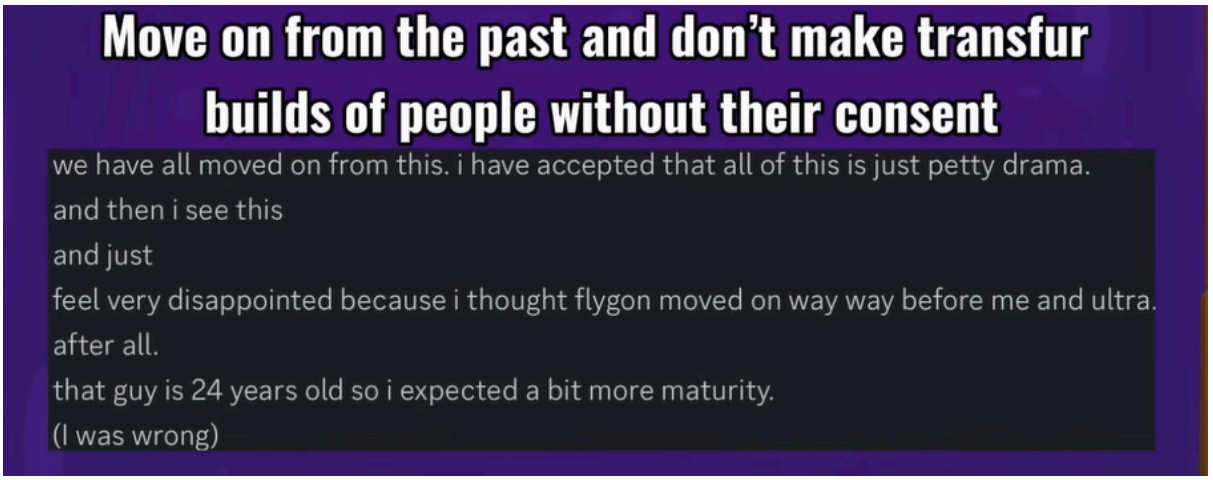
(lemme remind you. flygon is 24 years old)



Move on from the past and don't make transfur builds of people without their consent we have all moved on from this. i have accepted that all of this is just petty drama.
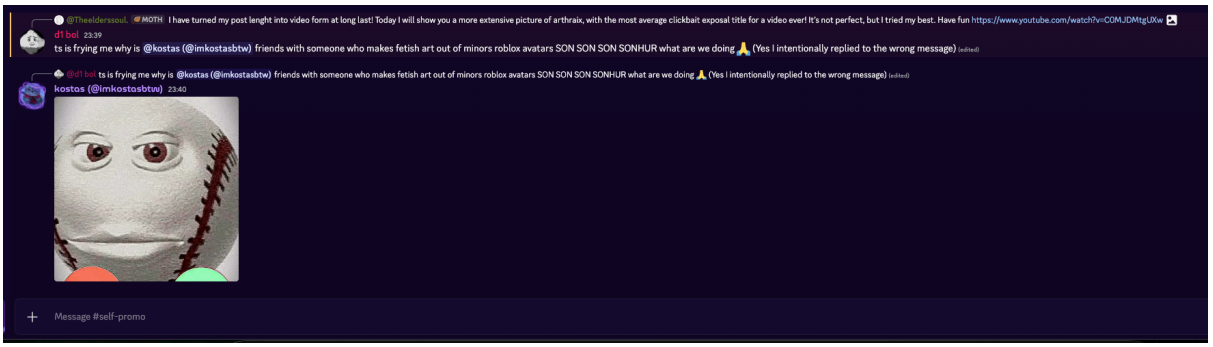
and then i see this and just feel very disappointed because i thought flygon moved on way way before me and ultra.
after all.
that guy is 24 years old so i expected a bit more maturity.
(I was wrong)

Obviously, I had to contact TES to explain everything that happened and while he said to move on from Mercita's past, as much as I'd like to, I personally cannot consider all the stuff he did to me and my friends.

And of course, more people outside of this whole situation had to think that I am an awful degenerate. It hurts more considering said people now consider my own FRIEND as a pedophile defender.



@Theelderssoul MOTH I have turned my post lenght into video form at long last! Today I will show you a more extensive picture of arthraix, with the most average clickbait exposal title for a video ever! It's not perfect, but I tried my best. Have fun https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C0MJDMtgUXw

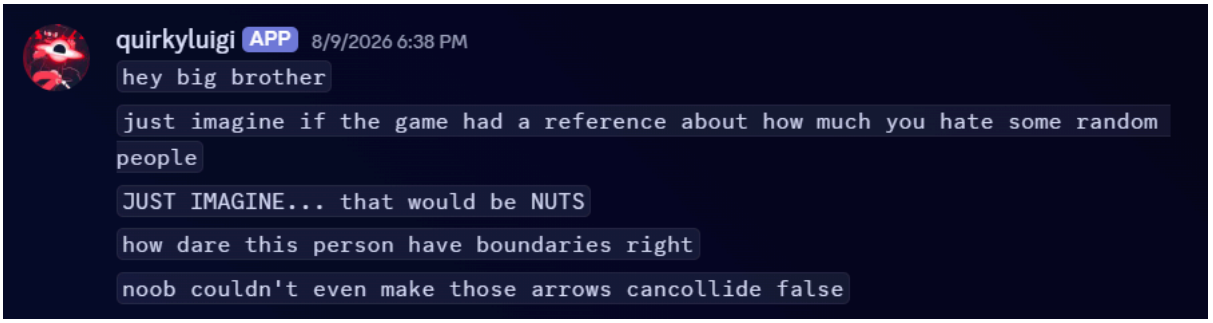
It only took ONE day after TES's video for them to come in game and say this (retrieved through a necessary chat logger for moderation purposes)



quirkyluigi APP 8/9/2026 6:38 PM
hey big brother

JUST IMAGINE... that would be NUTS

This refers to the Deltarune/Changed lore content I added with the survey since they figured out that I added naming conditions that kicks them with the names I've stated above. What they didn't know is that I removed it the same day TES released its video)

Again, looking at the account associated, I think you can tell UCC is behind that

If you couldn't tell what is going on, it means that this group of people still CANNOT move on from what happened back in march and are STILL PISSED OFF over a inside joke between me and kostas that NEVER was meant to be public.

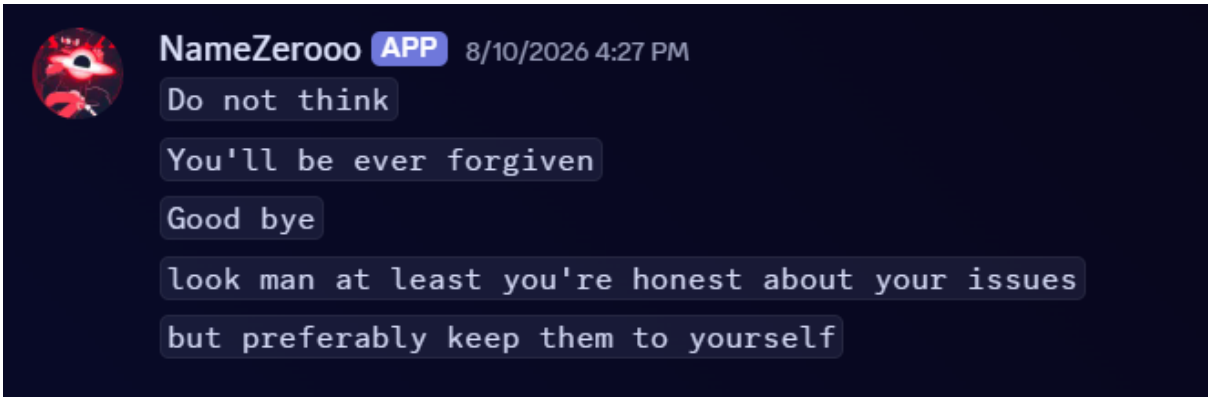
And you want to know what they did afterwards? THEY DECIDED TO SPREAD IT EVEN FURTHER BEYOND WAWASCAPES COMMUNITY.

The next day, I received this through the chat logger:



NameZerooo APP 8/10/2026 4:27 PM
Do not think You'll be ever forgiven
Good bye
look man at least you're honest about your issues but preferably keep them to yourself

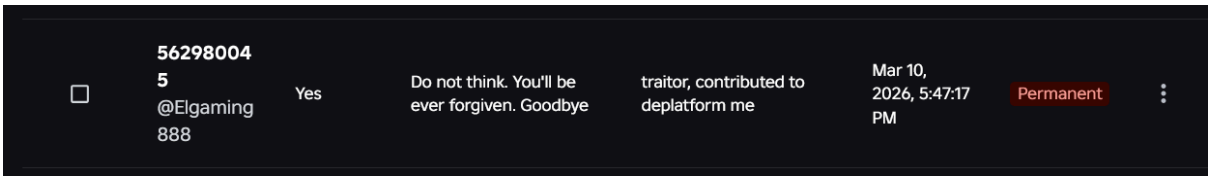
This message refers to Ultra's in-game ban message from 5 months ago, therefore PROVING they spread this beyond a private community only for the sole purpose of acting petty.



(Obviously, all accounts associated with UCC/Wawascape/Modecraziness have been banned afterwards). This also had the consequence of leading me to add a 60 days minimum account creation date requirement in my own game to prevent this case from happening again.

Overall, this whole situation started from what was a fully SFW shitpost between me and kostas but quickly devolved into an attempt at deplatforming me that led to a callout from a member I respect within the EToH community (obviously TheElderSoul) and further attempts at deplatforming me nowadays.

And while it doesn't not seem much for most of you, since I never had a case of figure this major beforehand (for context: the worse I've ever faced was just someone that made 3 accounts with name referencing 3 messages I've left in a group chat before leaving for good, which is in retrospective completely harmless), it led me to develop a pretty bad paranoia which I'm still suffering from today. Every time I see sometime join my game, I immediately think that some UCC/Wawascape/Modecraziness affiliate will attempt to defame me by speaking through the chat logger, every time I see a new player join my discord server, I assume it's one of them coming to call me out, every time I get pinged by a friend such as kostas, I immediately assume that it's about them trashtalking about me in front of other people.

This situation also led me to pretty bad trust issues with anyone I talk to. Can I personally trust kostas, zane or anyone that doesn't know about this situation? Can I even trust myself? No. I cannot

And beyond that, I started fearing for my own safety, constantly thinking I was about to get doxxed for that shitpost. What if matrix started looking for someone to swat me? God knows how things went, as I don't have access to any obscure group chat or DMs matrix had during that time

Yeah, I can't really talk about it to anyone I know in real life. My personal relationship with my parents (yeah, I unfortunately still live with them) is actually rough and not only they wouldn't take it seriously, but they'd make me feel like a horrible person.

And you know what's the cherry on the cake? After I was unbanned from NT and reinvited to their newer server, Tower District, nap revealed to me that UCC was DELETED.

For what reason? It's clear enough that they attempted to hide proof / evidence of everything that happened in the meantime, and this makes me believe that even more considering that kostas, which managed to stay longer than me in it, ALSO got banned with no proper reason, and of course, nuni had to leave him radio silent.

Part 5 - Personal messages to my so called "friends"

Now, now, now, I'd like to address personally and directly to most of the people that are involved within this entire fiasco. And I have a LOT to stay about two particular individuals. So let's start, shall we?

Mercita:

Mercita, or so I should call you kurowa from now on. Up until kostas revealed your true face to me, I thought you were pretty chill, sure a bit off, but chill.

I am genuinely disgusted by your own behavior and your ability to backstab your friends and acquaintances just because you'd like your tricky schemes to go as planned. First detective, which I realized later on, where you deliberately harassed him for being a "bad owner" back in the DToD era.

You used him to make him look bad and hid yourself behind the DToD nuking to pretend nothing happened.

Not only him, but you also willingly attempted to deplatform zaneblazed just because you wanted to bring past drama that already was resolved. Your presence online only brings disgust to others.

Your fangame, or should I say, the salvation of what remained from DToD, couldn't even be properly managed and you refused to see the truth, leaving your devs to do the whole work at your place. May I remind you of your entire contribution to the Site 2 subrealm? That's right? A few portal decorations and basic lobby designing. You let Pouwtjes do the whole work with no recognition AT ALL.

Seems like your relationship with a literal embezzler clouded your mind, Kurowa. You know who I'm talking to, but let me remind you of it for other readers so they know the full context. While Kuro thinks stealing 100K+ USD worth of robux is wrong, he FORGAVE Jukecallaa for her actions and the payment of her sister's voice surgery. Keep saying what you want, Kuro, you cannot escape your past nor what you currently do to avoid that.

Your relation with TES led him to believe that I'm a predator over a SHITPOST, and therefore you PURPOSELY CHOSE to tarnish my internet image.

What tells me you did not spread this nonsense in other servers I'm not present in like you did with zane?

Hell, I even attempted to apologize to you after he released his video, as an act of moving on, but what you had to say inside of modecraziness led me to what I am currently thinking and saying about you.

(my apology letter if you already forgot it, but knowing you, you DID NOT EVEN attempt to open it AT ALL: An apology to mercita/mercury)

It seems like even today, you keep lying to him, still pretending that nothing happened, as you want to show him your "innocent victim" face. How many more people did you lie in total within those 5 months? How many more people did you manipulate in total?

"i want to move on". No you did not at all. I wouldn't be writing this document as of now if you actually moved on and if your friends didn't push it far enough for it to happen.

Keep it a secret, you say? I bet people there still are NOT aware of your own secrets mercita, people can find your past actions right where I linked it in the introduction.

Just because you didn't like a leaked shitpost about something you dislike and NEVER WAS MEANT to be remotely anything fetishistic or sexual means it's worth doing all possible effort to attempt deplatforming people. The fact you decided to rally with a known racist, transphobic and doxxer is disgusting. And don't get me started on the whole "mercita if he was a furry" image. Another joke that you decided to be disrespected on. Grow up.

Keep brainwashing your community into misinforming and making people think I'm a horrible person, mercita. We both know where it will lead you when you'll be an adult.

Keep lying to your dear friends, even the most respected ones, and you'll end up alone with your regrets and with no way to go back to normal.

You have no reason for me to have an ounce of compassion nor have even a neutral opinion about you for everything you made me suffer through anymore. You told everyone that you'll change over the course of this past year. You did not change. You never changed. You never went to therapy like you promised to everyone. You're a disgusting liar, manipulator and I sure hope no one else will ever cross your path.

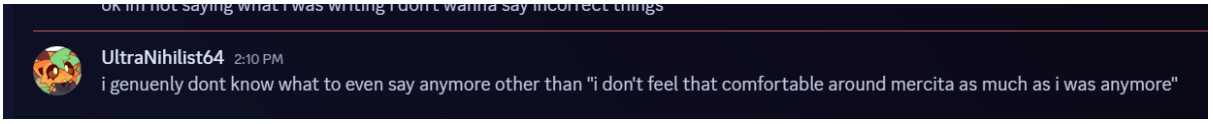
So, if you're somehow reading this, unlike the first document I've made about the transfur shitpost, it would be better off for you if you were to stay off the Internet, and for a long time, if not forever.

UltraNihilistic:

Oh boy, god I also have a lot to go through about you.

What I thought of the literal definition of a friend turned into the literal opposite: a traitor and a backstabber. Does that remind you of something Ultra? Yeah, it's about time you get those words into your defectuous brain because that's what you are.

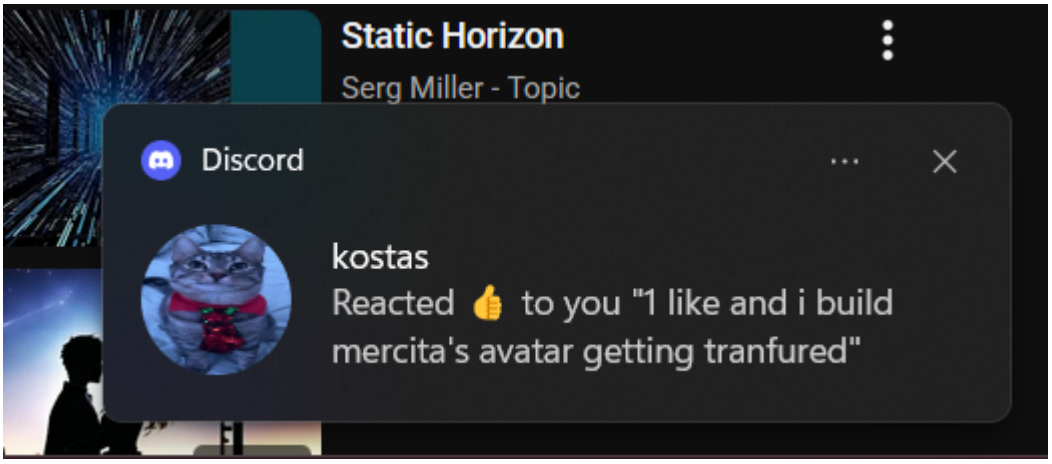
When I sent you the mercita's document about his past when I also figured it out, you told me you weren't as comfortable as before.



UltraNihilist64 2:10 PM
i genuenly dont know what to even say anymore other than "i don't feel that comfortable around mercita as much as i was anymore"

In fact, you were as comfortable as before around mercita, if not more and with what happened back in march, this statement only got stronger.

Speaking of what happened back in march, once you figured out about the transfur shitpost, and let it be clear, you did it a long time ago, you LEAKED my DMs to matrix so he could make that document out of pure anger.



Does this screenshot remind you of anything? Because there's also a bunch to say about it.

You pretended to play along and pretended to be okay with that. Not once, but twice. Just to protect mercita and your so called friends from my own interests that never went overboard beside that shitpost.

Yeah it's ironic since it's about you. Banned for valid reasons and this is how you react? Surely it wouldn't permanently affect the way me and my friends see you right?

I was about to forgive you in early august and just move on until I discovered what you all had to say through the chat logger in my game. Why would I even think about forgiving or moving on from people that are constantly pestering me?

The only thing you bring in that time span is constant paranoia and sheer hatred against what you did to me as we both clearly know you shamelessly attempted to air me off the whole EToH community.

Even outside of EToH, you went as far as including me in your profile bio and pretending to ignore what is going on.

I'm still waiting for your explanation on this. You literally decided to disassociate from me because I hurt your so-called friend's feelings. Considering that you decided to give ownership of your modeslop game to Mercita and still remain in the development team, something tells me that your relation with him only got stronger, despite all the wrongdoings Mercita has done. Surprised he didn't delete the server as soon as it got transferred.

When I told you I removed Ultra's mini towers from my own game, you simply pretended to be fine with it. Your reaction was anything but professional. In fact, this whole interaction pretty much defines what betrayal is.

Matrixstar:

Good lord. I don't know what to start with. I used to think you were a quite chill guy. Sure with issues in life considering you have to deal with Mexico's bullshit.

At this time, I completely ignored that you were associated with Astro, nor did I knew you also were a very close friend of arthraix itself.

When I quit UCC for the first time back in february, it was because any of you, including mercita, couldn't stop bringing political topics to any of your channels. Mexico cartel shit here, Israel bombing here. It was unbearable for me to stay any longer. Guess I should have stayed out for good, huh? Considering you went as far as making a document for RoLock that failed miserably.

Your wrath blinded you and while you admitted that you wrote it out of anger, it didn't justify the fact that a transparency note about me in a private server YOU wrote was SENT to the RoLock managers, possibly annihilating my internet image.

Flygon is having a next-generation crashout and is telling ununrockium and several people that i'm terrible

You then wanted to apologize about this whole situation? That's cute. You think I will accept your apology due to an attempt to deplatform me because you didn't like me liking Changed and because I made a shitpost of one of your so dear friends. Too bad. I can't allow myself to forgive that kind of behavior.

Oh well, what could I know, finding out that you literally affiliated yourself with Astro, you know, the guy that has over 300 alternative accounts that he uses to groom people and raid servers. What could I know finding out that you became a notable racist and transphobic member that used to talk to arthraix and send him offensive jokes to “cheer him up”.

Surely your wrath wouldn’t make you misinform more people by saying how awful I am right? Because of some stupid joke that oh so happened to shatter mercita’s feelings?

Oh...

i'd say that i have strong grounds on saying that flygon will later become a degenerate
i just know it from pattern recognition self-righteousness, projecting their interests onto their game and being unable to not obsess over it in a server with minors is a pretty deadly mix i would say i'll wait and see if my hypothesis is proven right once again i just KNOW something is up, but i don't want them in etoh lock yet cuz i'd come under fire for assuming everything FVContradictious 09/03/2026, 10:47 people, i have made a disturbing discovery flygon used to be very chill, friendly and most importantly not a weirdo back then - something that's already known however there are parallels being drawn with how flygon's behavior changed over time and the exact time flygon began interacting with kostas when flygon befriended kostas, he became increasingly distant from his other friends, eventually culminating into taking all of us like a mere joke he has made an inaproppiate transfur-related build of mercita, disrespected mercita's place of origin, and is slandering mercita for shit knowing full well that mercita's opinions and views are all correct flygon also proudly brings up transfur shit next to minors AAAAALL the time this behavior started appearing only when flygon and kostas began interacting and well what do you know, when flygon was actually outed it seems like kostas is defending it that's pretty strong grounds to say that kostas has gotten flygon to this point, further incriminating kostas in bullshit as if he hasn't already Well, fuck. The extent of kosta's bullshit is unending.

Safe to say that I do not wish to even talk to such a person ever again.

Noney:

Believe or not, noney, but you also have wrongdoings.

You know you managed to get away with the Transfur Edifice I mentioned earlier? Crazy but for something that’s much worse than Mercita’s transfur, you got away with it and had ZERO punishment out of it. Mind if I remind you that at this time, ImPurpleBoii was 12

And you want to know why? Because it’s easier to get away from something you did about someone your community despises, ESPECIALLY IF THEY HAPPEN TO BE A MINOR.

You had no shame building something while introducing an entire transfur mechanic. And when I do something milder as a joke, I get exposed and almost outed from the EToH scene.

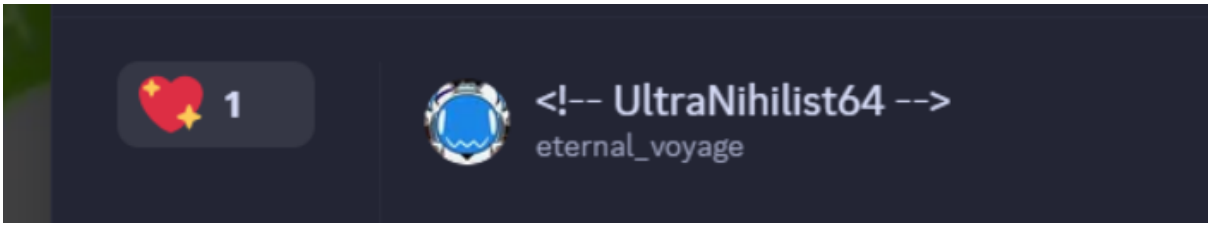
You’d like to wonder why? Because it’s easier for them to evict a grown ass adult and make them frame as a predator instead of an underaged kid that stole the equivalent of 14 dollars.

Link to the build for refreshers: Wawascapes "builds" -> Transfur edifice

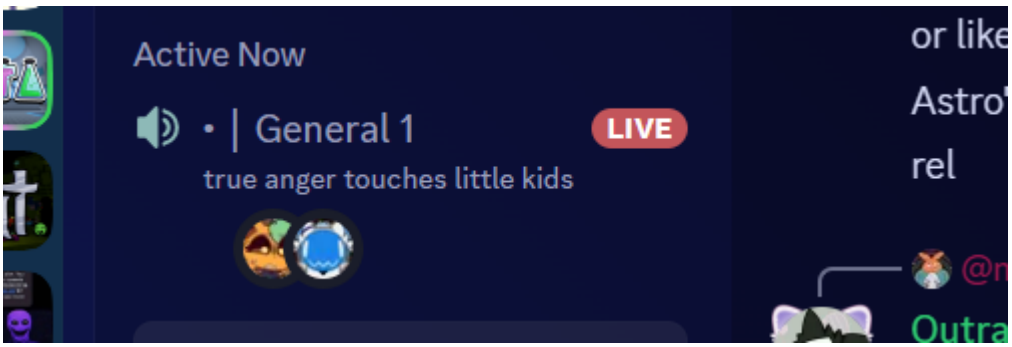
You personally disgust me alongside your friends. And you want to know what's best out of there? You continue weirding out at me by making inappropriate remarks.

"For example" - good job noney for proving that!

Also hi Ultra for reacting to that image, keep showing to everyone your idiocracy.



Also what kind of message did you want to try conveying through this voice chat? Weird name for a voice chat isn't it?



Tango:

I don’t have much to say about you, ironically.

Thought I will point out something you’ll recognize since you deliberately exploited within my fangame to access normally unreachable subplaces for the whole sake of spiting me.

Good question!

At this time, both MToA and MToAN, both Ultra’s mini towers in my game, were removed for more than 3 months. The only way to get there is exploiting through to reach a testing place never meant to be seen to the public.

Beside that, he sometimes joined to check on the server to give news to UCC/Wawascapes.

Nothing too offensive on his part, though affiliated with Ultra, Mercita and Matrix, it is common sense to not let them roam free around my own fangame.

kostas' Personal Experience:

Yo, I don't think I got anything new to add but I wanna share my experience with these people and the drama, mainly focusing on Matrix and Mercury.

I found out about mercury through KMTM at the end of 2024 and always found him pretty annoying due to his cringey jokes and obsession with harassing iojdgh to the point that he was making fun of him in literally every conversation. If you know me, I am a person who loves making fun of bad people and nuisances (case in point: arthraix) and if I remember correctly iojdgh is a pretty weird person as well but I never get to a point of trying to look for opportunities in every sentence and in every conversation to mention and to bully him. Most of these are completely unprompted.

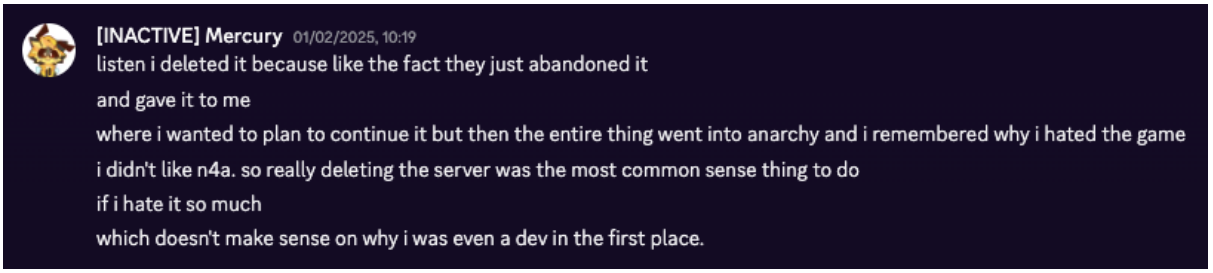
[INACTIVE] Mercury 31/01/2025, 14:15
Anyways so



[INACTIVE] Mercury 01/02/2025, 10:19
listen i deleted it because like the fact they just abandoned it and gave it to me where i wanted to plan to continue it but then the entire thing went into anarchy and i remembered why i hated the game i didn't like n4a. so really deleting the server was the most common sense thing to do if i hate it so much which doesn't make sense on why i was even a dev in the first place.

Shortly after, the former N4A owner emu / jpo / egg got basically the same treatment as iojdgh due to him not giving ownership of the group to mercury. Yes, after mercury deleted the entire server. And it was considered by mercury as “embezzlement” and he could Not shut up about jpo “stealing” 34k robux which in reality were left untouched. (u gotta zoom in for some of these) @emuoto.ri hey egg i should probably apologize to you toward the way i acted towards you and how i handeled the drama. The 34k embezzlement came because the robux was still in the group at the time and no one could access it (making it seem like it was stolen. However that is not the case today and im sorry). I apologize for all of the shit i did to you i find that very disgusting from my side. Welcome back to N4A. And im sorry for how i acted towards you again. I hope your doing better and good luck with yourself. I know its hard to forgive me after all of the shit i have done towards you but i think you deserve an apology from me after everything that had happened between us.

I hate you i never felt so good after i stole 35k robux i mean left it in the group for no reason. hey why all of a sudden im being called a jukecalla jr? - egg 2025 (he never said this) i mean what?
this neat was pure slop your correct now. go play sol's rng

Remember, there ARE actual reasons to hate jpo which I won't go into but not because of whatever mercury was obsessed with. And yes, I call this obsession because exactly as with iojdgh's case, he tried his absolute best to make everything about jpo, nearly every single conversation had to include 34k robux. Weird, right?

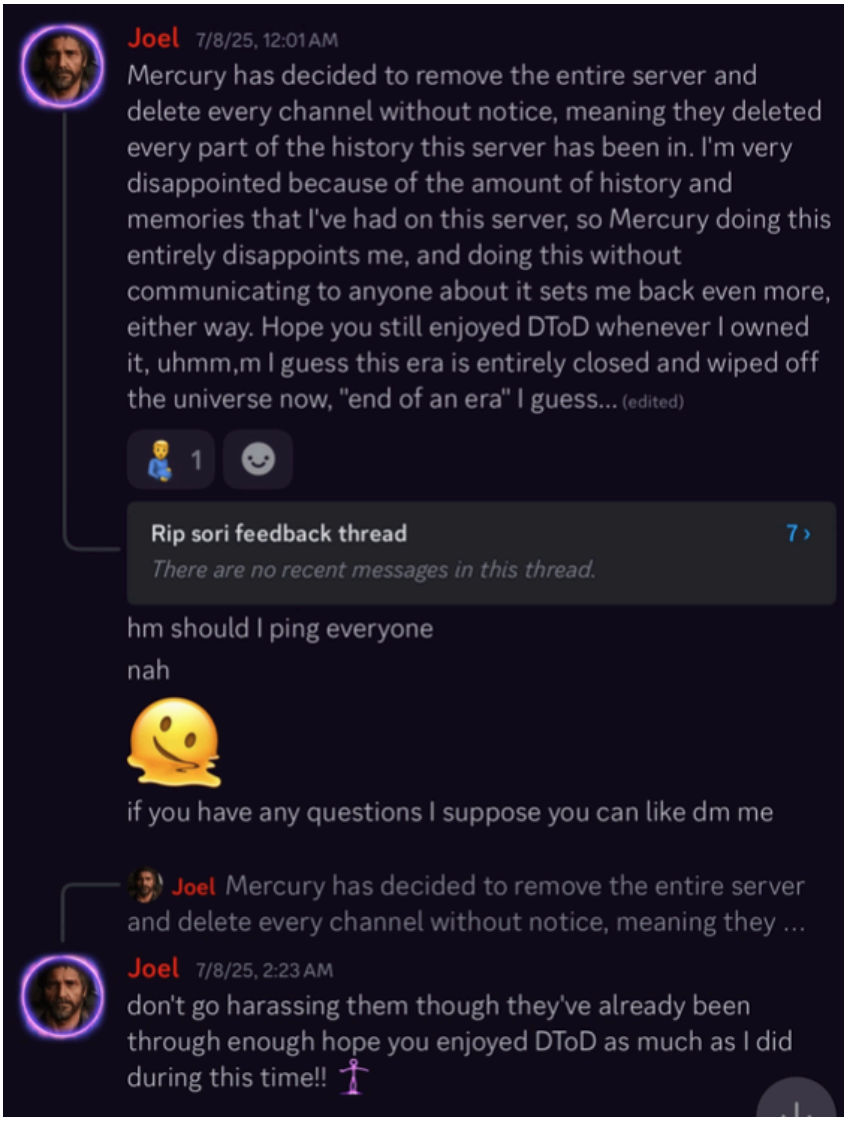
Before the big drama nukes, there are 2 more situations I was not involved in but will briefly talk about:

DToD drama: During the fangame transfer from Detective_Memee's hands to mercury, there was some internal drama that has led to mercury deleting ALL channels and months of history from DToD, woooow who would've thought that would happen! Outraged already talked about it but I bring it up as an example of the second time mercury has nuked the server after gaining ownership.



Joel 7/8/25, 12:01 AM
Mercury has decided to remove the entire server and delete every channel without notice, meaning they deleted every part of the history this server has been in. I'm very disappointed because of the amount of history and memories that I've had on this server, so Mercury doing this entirely disappoints me, and doing this without communicating to anyone about it sets me back even more, either way. Hope you still enjoyed DToD whenever I owned it, uhmm,m I guess this era is entirely closed and wiped off the universe now, "end of an era" I guess... (edited)

Alr I would like to apologize about the crashout and the way i spoke about you behind your back. i admit it was very petty and I agree with all of the document that the way i acted both in the past and the present was very immature and i have taken notes to prevent said events from happening again.
i am sorry for harrassing you + seeking your attention that was not the correct thing for me to do. The harassment was not justfied and shouldn't have happened and if i have caused you any stress / anxiety then I'm sorry. I am also sorry for not removing your towers sooner when you requested, I shouldn't have been so pushy about it and i should have just removed them as soon as you asked me to and i will not defend myself. by tomorrow all of your towers (and i mean all towers that are not a collab tower) will be removed. this includes tomc socp and tt. I will not be waiting for replacements and i will just remove those towers. I am sorry for also acting like a piece a shit to you + leaking stuff about your past i should have kept my mouth shut.
I am sorry for posting all of those sent x detective jokes. It was wrong of me to do so because i was hurting sent in the process and it was genuinely unfunny.
I am sorry for consistently hating your tower for no reason. it is no secret that i hated them but i did enjoy atleast 2 of them (being toig and totas:r) but your gameplay style is not my favorite and I Shouldn't have harrassed you for that.
now time to clarify stuff!
In the doc i said something about you being a stalker. That was because i genuinely felt uncomfortable with you digging through juke's stuff as it felt like your going the extra mile to do so. however i shouldn't have called you that.
1/2 (I am not done with my apology) (edited)
Now did i work for utg just for money? yes and no I did not mention that when i first joined utg it was because i actually did want to help you on the game regardless on what happened but then when i first stepped down and when i wanted to go back to work i wanted money so i could support the mariana trench subrealm. It was wrong of me doing so and i understand why you are mad about that.
THE SUEING thing was a joke and i have no idea WHY they didn't take it as a joke? (yay a misunderstanding!)
The American racism was actually a joke, i was just going with pouwtjes because i didn't want to upset them really. calling you fat was also wrong i agree that was so immature of me and i truely regret it.
now why am i apologizing to you? well that document just made me realize what im doing is NOT the right move THIS WAS NOT the correct move to do and i just lost someone who i liked working with for a long time. I just feel regretful for my actions even after we had the fight i was had this feeling of "i messed up big time" even tho it didn't seem like that and how i pretended like im fine with you cutting ties with me. This was untrue i have gone too far and has destroyed our friendship for petty reasons. I destroyed it over what? you hating mtod? So what? why did i care that you hated mtod.
It was non of my business anyways.
Well so this is all. its all i wanted to clarify if i haven't mentioned something in here well that doesn't mean i don't feel sorry about it. I do. I feel like i was the bad guy here.
It's your choice if you want to accept it or not. but i rather just have you on good terms so i would know that we can both move on with our life with our fangames
I Thank you for giving me mtod. it was a gift i heavily cared about. A gift i didn't really ask for (if i remember correctly) but a gift that made me realize my passion was not for nothing.
2/2 (alr now im done)

KMTM game ban:

After receiving the document on mercury that outraged has discussed here prior, KMTM staff has decided to ban mercury from both server and game. After that some conversations between them happened and he was unbanned from the game while retaining his server ban.

Okay so, I have been told to contact you about my ban from kmtm (in the game and probably also from the server but I'm no concerned about the server). outraged_flygon (my friend) asked Kosta why i was banned from the kmtm and he responded with the image i attached. I don't want to cause drama i just want to figure out why i got banned from the game and from what i have been told it's because of history of repetitive harassments of people. now I do want to address that I have been trying to actually change as a person recently (yes i know i don't show many signs of change but like. Trust me bro). I just want to like settle this down without causing any issues nor drama (I am not asking to be unbanned from kmtm i just want to talk to you and just See how I can fix my mistakes).
tl;dr: I just want to figure out by what "history of repetitve harrassments of people" means here in specific. And I am not asking to be unbanned from kmtm

i agree everything with the document here btw i didn't even try to debunk it because it's true i take accountability for my actions and for harassing people online as that's just not something i should do.
I have gone and tried to fix a lot of what i have done in the past and make amends i didn't mention this but I have basically apologized to iojdgh (yes ironic that i'm mentioning him) and we are on partily good terms (drama in mtod happened between us and he is banned but it has been resolved in dms).

now the 2nd person. Magz

i find my behavior with what i said to magz fucking disgusting i don't know why i even told them to kill themself and then act like i was going to kill myself. that's just fucking disgusting and i regret doing that to this day. I should apologize to them and I do want to but like I'm honestly scared how they would react... and I really do not just want to accidently restart old drama that happened between the two of us by accident.

So Tl;dr: I fucked up big times and I have being trying to course correct my actions and just change for the better.

fair enough. I don't even want to interact with kmtm because im emberessed with how i acted in that server

What's funny is that these two situations share something in common as well as being interconnected with everything I've talked about prior. What exactly? Apologies. In every single drama mercury was in he was apologizing for everything, saying that he is aware what exactly he did wrong and promising that he will never act like this again. That behavior can be seen every single time he fucks up and every single time he says he will not act like that again. Let's see if anything has changed!

October 9th 2025 - MTA Server Ban might as well get therapy because i didn't really telt that to kostas nor do i want anyone else from mta other then you to know this i am not doing well irl.

i have been too self neglecting of myself and just focusing on mtod and me me me me and only me that i just ended up becoming selfish and hurting you zane and detective in the process and many other people without even knowing i was stuck in my own bubble yet again just like last time and it was too late for me to burst that bubble again im going to take some time for myself now
just keep doing what you do but i am not coming back to mta i think i made myself clear about that idk if you will want to stay in mtod and i don't know if i am making you uncomfortable anymore because i am too caught up in my own thoughts that i just ignore people's bounderies

December 8th 2025 - Deplatforming of zaneblazed

One day prior I've received a DM from mercury showing some pretty bad behavior of zaneblazed including hijacking MToD's webhook. This was later brought up in RoLock and TFC staff channels as a subject to ban him. As soon as I found out I've dmed zane about it to hear his side of the story:

if you want any extra info tell me kostas 07/12/2025, 21:24
nah im cool wiht that info Thank you

What zane did back then is wrong but it was ultimately decided by me and staff of aforementioned servers that it can be forgiven due to the fact that zane has recently turned 13 at that time and got influenced by bad people into working for them. It's obviously up to mercury if he wants to forgive zane as I understand it is personal for him but it is by no means worth a deplatforming. That day I didn't respond to mercury.

The next day, mercury decides to spread the information outside of DMs with what looks like a pretty clear goal: Deplatform attempt.

I do hope mta doesn't die because of this. I have no goal / purpose in spreading this information

Mercury decided to show the provided screenshots in a public server after an unrelated mention of MTA, likely planned one as it was mentioned by someone who was involved in this situation and was banned from MTA 3 months prior. Mercury later says that he has no intent on killing MTA over this and on spreading this information which was said to somehow soften the consequences and avoid the responsibilities of spreading the screenshots. Later, zaneblazed was banned from KToH:R as well after a DM from mercury. After everything mercury has ever done, this was a final nail in the coffin for me, I blocked him and requested to ban him from the RoLock server and TFC which I was (and still am) moderating. In my eyes mercury went from mentally ill self-aware boy to someone actually malicious.

Shortly after the bans he contacted Lyria and received this message from me:

- "ive found out that youve been trying to basically deplatform zane for shit he has done months ago and that has already been settled (he apologized for doing that and had cut ties with bad actors even before mta creation), and dont even start telling me that was not your intent, you sent all these screenshots to a public server out of the blue as soon as mta was mentioned, you presumably dmed ktoh:r owner just to get zane banned from there and god knows who else did you tell

this information, and the way you lie about "i dont want mta to die over this :(" "i dont want this information to be spread i have no goal in that" its just so manipulative and disgusting, it literally contradicts with what you did and what you want / wanted to do at that time, you are actually fucking disgusting mercury, continue saying you will improve, losing more and more friends every once in a while, continue blaming others for toxicity while being one of the most toxic people i know of, continue banning or hating others when they bring up your past while CONTINUOUSLY trying to deplatform people you hate and bringing up THEIR past drama for your personal comfort, just because you like being a victim. i hope this message finds you well, i dont want to see you anywhere near the servers i moderate or the games i develop, i am not going to forgive someone who refuses to change for so long p.s. this will not warrant an etoh lock addition, its up to fangame owners if they want you on their servers or not Lyria and mercury have talked for a bit leading to mercury fully departing from the EToH community and resigning from fangame teams he previously worked on. Notable messages will be provided below:

i don't know how to react so if i randomly break down in your dms then like i already went through a bad day.
there is the thing is
I THOUGHT I DID THE RIGHT THING. this isn't EVEN MY INTENT AND IM NOT LYING IM NOT EVEN BEING MANIPULATIVE?
I GENUINALLY DON'T WANT MTA TO DIE
SURE I HATED THAT GAME BUT IT'S CUZ OF JELOUSY AND I GOT OVER IT.
AM I TOXIC?
im sorry but im sorry for breaking down im being overly sensetive. it's just a game.

y'know what i should stop talking about "oh i should just try and change myself" becuase time and time again i prove myself wrong so like speak to me again in like 6 months.
i hope everything will be okay but i genuin don't want mta to die.

@lyriffs COPA well, you're being self aware about it now so id say that's progress

Mercury 2:42 PM

oh it's probably just a fleeting moment. just because im self aware now doesn't mean im going to be self aware in like a week, a month a year i have been told i have a lack of self awareness but idk i have always been awfully bad communicating with people.

Mercury 2:48 PM

i think rn im a terrible fangame owner because the fact i get into trouble with so many others + the fact kostas sees me as the most toxic person he met just hurts me.

in general i always had this fear.

heck even when i was speaking with jukecallaa and becoming her friend i had this feeling of "oh your going to mess up" "oh your going to make her think your a weirdo".

(yes im friends with juke) tbh i shouldn't have forwarded the stuff about zane to OoE.

it was stupid of me.
Mercury "redeem" i thought i redeemed myself multiple times that's the thing

@lyriffs COPA hm
Mercury 2:53 PM
i think i know why.
i js do the same process
lyriffs COPA 2:53 PM
im not too sure then but im gonna guess thats because people in the tower community as a whole doesnt really forgive people easily (excluding the pedophiles and groomers of course they shouldnt be forgiven) (edited)
Mercury 2:54 PM
of "hey js don't do that" for like a few days then i get TOO comfortable and revert back to my old behavior and expect a differerent outcome over and over and over

Mercury
instead of getting therapy and actually changing like kostas have told me to do but instead i thought he was js overexggrating.
no
he wasn't.
tbh i feel like at any moment i will mess up again and Poof. another friend gone
i need some time
i appreciete you responding and all but i need time.
lyriffs COPA 2:56 PM
i understand Mercury 2:56 PM
time to actually take the steps to change instead of doing the same process of "forgetting everything" and "oh im better then before tottaly!"

There isn't much to add to this, mercury has once again apologized and said he will improve but this time leaving EToH community altogether. For the next 3 months nothing particularly bad happened and I managed to cool down from that incident but during these 3 months nuni has created an infamous server where Mercury and mainly Matrix have done their last accord.

March 9th 2026 - Behavioral Profile

I don't see much sense describing what has happened as this is literally the main topic of this whole document but in short: both me and outraged were in UCC / wawascapes where mercury was residing as well, he later found out about the random inside joke between me and outraged and took it so personally he reached out to his friend matrix to do something about it.

Mercury's opinion on the image is not something that matters in this context but the total outrage from it does, something that was supposed to be (and was meant to be) a regular announcement inside their private server was used as an attempt to deplatform my friend over exaggerated claims in the form of a google document.

Does it remind you of something, perhaps? Everything that happened after has already been shown by outraged but the reason I am mentioning this is because some time after the document matrix added a small paragraph stating he wants to make a document on me for allegedly enabling the behavior of outraged, specifically him being a furry and liking similar content. This is where I decided to directly step in explaining why that's not the case (which was easy) and trying to prove this document is not something that should've existed in the first place. (Long read ahead)

My judgement tells me that a further addendum, or even document by itself, is required to bring to full context the whole deal including Kostas - as a lot of things happen which must be explained again from the start in a chronological order.

it's pretty easy to influence someone's viewpoints wether positively or negatively, even if they are an adult it seems unnatural to me that flygon who once did not hop on the juke hate train now does so as a justification for the build against mercita with a vague claim, that at the same time flygon knows full well is not the whole scope of the juke situation at all it seems pretty unnatural to me that flygon now has beef with mercita and goes as far as to make a transfur build of them when they once were good friends if it really didn't require some third party influencing them, then that means flygon has made an overreaction of large proportions over being called out i will state that flygon is in the right for defending themselves against a possible "pedophile" claim but they did not handle the rest of the situation in a correct way at the time what do you think were the resources they had to compare "which one is right or wrong" iirc mercita told me that they have explained the juke situation to flygon already, meaning they must've known not to make a certain statement later made on in the document if it was truly debunked by flygon then i wouldn't have gone through with the document, because flygon's "response" was made before i even published anything the entire flygon response is ONLY flygon doubling down on behavior that has already been listed as not appropiate for this server one strong line that flygon says goes by the lines of "i will bring up transfur to anything and no matter the outcome"

i vividly remember reading that in flygon's response document the ban is not debunked, it is justified and flygon has dug their own grave by never admitting that they should listen and stop bringing up topics when other members tell them to do so the only points debunked by flygon are things which again were just seemingly sparked from ucc members typing shit

Matthew :3 12:00
the primary necessity of the document is simply for people to know why they have been banned without having to explain the whole thing over and over again
my initial reaction that threatened some EFC document towards flygon (and it being brought up in an authority gc including members of etoh lock and similar internet drama handler guys) was my bad, it was anger and boldedness at the time - things just happen to me when my suspicions seem to be coming true
and well it is too late now that they have actually put their attention to this - meaning that in the best case scenario it's going to sit around and only come up if shit of higher severity happens involving either of you, or in the worst case it's going to be polled in etoh lock (which i am willing to defend flygon in, but iirc i am banned from the etoh lock server)

once again, protecting members of the ucc could be done Inside ucc within an announcement that could be for the reach of ucc only instead of whatever is gonna happen in the future, even if you are going to defend flygon against banning him from tfc or adding him to etoh lock, you still take accoutability that your anger is the reason the situation got to this point, also flygon talks behind peoples backs? its none of your fucking business matrix, the same way that its none of ANYONES business, ofc its meant to be private and not said publicly to anyones face because its meant to be like that and its not something that is warrant a mention in the document or even a bad point at all because its a human nature to privately talk about someone they dislike, its not done to harass them or to anyhow deplatform, then what is your issue with it? yeah and sometimes the controversy starts not by someone you think

TL;DR: I managed to prove the document was unnecessary and found out it was made out of anger.

Later that night, starlus (f.k.a. bob) submitted the document to RoLock where it only got 30% of blacklist votes instead of required 75%. While matrix has stated multiple times it wasn't meant to be for RoLock, that is what happened after matrix has spread it far enough through communities over something that only mattered in UCC itself.

The Addressed Beecat BSS 8:22 AM yea...

~5 days after the incident I was kicked from UCC and mercury has switched the accounts over being scared of me and outraged. I've heard some people telling outraged to move on and not to make the document but if you look at the scale of things, even if it doesn't warrant the attention of RoLock, it warrants the attention of people who have interacted or want to interact with these people further, especially mercury. Time has shown he is not someone who can easily change, if can at all. I've collected here all cases I know about or was involved in where mercury has fucked up over the same mistakes and was always telling he is self-aware and such behavior won't happen again, losing many of his friends over-time. I was never a friend of mercury but outraged or zaneblazed were and many other people were who were treated horribly by him. If mercury and his friends / his community can't move on and are constantly on his ass over things that on the larger scale of things don't even matter, why should he?

As the last thing I want to mention, the most hypocritical thing in this whole situation is that matrix has made a whole document about SFW transfur builds made by outraged while his friend made literal gore image of arthraix and matrix called it "godlevel ragebait" as well as called his friend a "saint", just some food for thought for you :)

no but tomas is a saint compared to arthraix

Some words from Zaneblazed:

I've asked zaneblazed to write his own message to mercita about how this whole situation felt to him and this is pretty much what he has to say, and safe to say he isn't very happy about your actions. He wrote the following:

Hello, I'm Zane, most commonly known as zaneblazed.
You may be wondering who I am, especially if you aren't familiar with me. I'm a Roblox Developer / Minecraft Modder who has worked on projects such as The Broken Script, Wonderland.jar, Mini Tower Anarchy, and Rooms: Low Detailed+.
I'm still around the age of 14, and until recently, I was under the impression that Mercury, also known as Kurowa, had completely left the internet. Finding out that they are still around honestly came as a shock to me.

I was also largely unaware of what had been done to Outraged beyond the very basic idea of what happened. After reading through this document, I was genuinely shocked by the extent of what was described. A lot of it was completely outside of what I had previously known.

As for you, Mercury, I have lost what little respect I still had for you after reading this.
You attempted to deplatform me while simultaneously acting as though you were still my friend. You went behind my back, harassed me, and continued putting on a false face around me while I believed we were still on good terms. At one point, you even said, "I hope Mini Tower Anarchy doesn't die because of this", despite what was happening behind my back.
For a long time, I chose to move on from what happened between us. I didn't want to interact with you again, and I wanted nothing more to do with you or the people involved. I had no intention of bringing any of this back up until now.

I also want to acknowledge that I wasn't perfect myself. Some of the things I did when I had recently turned 13 were genuinely problematic, and I won't pretend otherwise. However, I was heavily influenced by the people I surrounded myself with at the time. Since then, I've made an effort to distance myself from those people and from the parts of the tower community that I no longer want to associate myself with. I don't excuse the things I did, but I also don't believe that the mistakes I made as a young teenager should be used to erase the context of how much I've changed since then.

What happened between us left me with absolutely no desire to ever associate with you again. After everything I've learned, that feeling has only become stronger.

I hope that nobody else has to experience the kind of treatment I experienced or find themselves caught up in situations like these.

Part 7 - Conclusion & Reminders

I hope this document will allow you to make your own opinion about everyone involved within UCC/Wawascapes/Modecraziness and everything they did to me and that this situation will finally end permanently. It's been 5 months and this should have ended. I can't help but notice this whole drama isn't over and I have to force myself to write this.

I'd like to remind you that the snowball effect took place because of a simple, harmless shitpost we had between me and kostas and NEVER should have been leaked nor have been made public ANYWHERE.

Again, and I will repeat it myself, PLEASE DO NOT GO SEEK OUT AND HARASS PEOPLE MENTIONED IN THIS DOCUMENT. Please do NOT appear as stupid as them as it will NOT help anything and make things WORSE. I've suffered more than enough because of this bullshit situation and I do not wish anyone to undergo the same situation I had to go through.

To conclude once and for all, I will leave you an ultimate message that I'll let you take as whatever you would like:

It's been 5 months this situation should have ended. 5 months you desperately attempted to deplatform me in vain, 5 months you've been driving me into a deep paranoia EVERY DAY. So for once, use what remains from your fractured braincells to decide what is best for you.

If I ever find out you're still attempting to defame me over this whole situation, if I ever find out you're present in any of the communities I'm in especially within EToH fangame related servers and more importantly, if I ever find out that ANYONE within UCC/Wawascapes/Modecraziness is still going after either ME or MY FRIENDS for the same claims that were resolved months ago as another deplatforming attempt, I will not hesitate finding what servers you're in (it shouldn't be hard since you all seem to be interested in pm 6:06 games), and I'll make sure the moderators / administrators there know about your stupid tricky schemes. That's what some of you did while I was in Nap's Towers or KToH:R with Zaneblazed. I won't hesitate inflicting the same treatment you did to us.
